Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Camillo Skragg sits in the driver's seat of the 2018 Ford Focus they've been loaned by the State of Oklahoma. Penny Skragg sits in the passenger seat, holding an M4A1 carbine. She's double-checking everything, trying to make sure it will work. The 2018 Ford Focus is inside the "Civic Centre Parkade" (sic) at 550 W 3rd St.

Penny Skragg

I pressed the forward assist, and it's like nothing happened.

Camillo Skragg

I think it's supposed to do that.
You ready?

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg carefully points the carbine out of the car and tries to relax in the passenger seat.

Penny Skragg

Ask me once it's over.

Panel 3 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Camillo Skragg grabs the steering wheel and pulls himself up into a ready position.

Camillo Skragg

Yeah, no shit.

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

A message is received on a smartphone in a stand on the dashboard. Camillo Skragg reads it and clears the notification.

Camillo Skragg

The arraignment is over.

Panel 5 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Camillo Skragg starts the engine of the 2018 Ford Focus.

Panel 6 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Camillo Skragg puts the 2018 Ford Focus in "drive".

Camillo Skragg

They'll be out shortly.
Here we go.

Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

The 2018 Ford Focus rolls down the spiral driveway with Camillo Skragg behind the wheel and Penny Skragg in the passenger seat.

Box (FEMA Liaison, not visible)

“Downtown’s been evacuated of non-essential personnel.”

Box (Mayor of Tulsa, not visible)

“We’ve loaned them a surplus car from the Municipal fleet.”

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

The engine of the 2018 Ford Focus idles as Penny Skragg moves to sit on the passenger-side door, holding the carbine; she will be firing over the roof of the car.

Box (General of the Oklahoma National Guard, not visible)

“Against my better judgment, we provided the Skraggs a carbine and some ammunition.”

“Evidently they want their pound of flesh.”

Panel 3 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

The Eye

They’re— letting us go?

Thresher

Not exactly. We need to stick around for our next court date.

Jolt

I think “Not Guilty” was the right plea.

Victor was the one who did the deed.

Panel 4 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

A view down W 4th St. The 2018 Ford Focus speeds down the empty road, and Penny Skragg aims over the roof of the car. The Eye points vaguely in the direction of the oncoming car.

The Eye

Hey!

We’re in dan—

Panel 1 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

The Eye is struck in the head by a bullet, dying instantly. Jolt and Thresher begin to react. Several other bullets strike the pavement, and one lodges in Thresher's armored body.

The Eye (dying)

ghhhh–

Title

No More Nothing

Panel 2 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg fires the carbine over the roof of the speeding 2018 Ford Focus, while Camillo Skragg floors the accelerator.

Panel 3 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jolt and Thresher run after the 2018 Ford Focus, and prepare to take to the air.

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jolt and Thresher fly after the 2018 Ford Focus over W 4th St. Penny Skragg is back in the passenger seat and flips the safety on the carbine. Camillo Skragg is looking a little nervous.

Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis teleports onto Thresher's back with a shower of sparks. She holds on to his shoulders and stands on his back.

SF/X

VASSSP!

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Peter Cat flies through the asphalt surface of W 4th St with a streak of smoke, and takes position behind Jolt. Jolt fires a lightning bolt from her right arm emitter at the 2018 Ford Focus but misses. She is preparing to take another shot with the emitter on her left arm.

Panel 3 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis snaps Thresher's neck. His mask flies off.

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Peter Cat channels a hellish blast of plasma into a tight shell around Jolt. Her body burns to ash in milliseconds.

Panel 5 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis rides Thresher's corpse down to the pavement, and somersaults off his back as he skids to a stop on the street.

Panel 6 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Air resistance catches up to Jolt. Her body collapses into a cloud of ash. Peter Cat touches down near Jinx Bubastis' position.

Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Peter Cat looks over at Jinx Bubastis. They are both realizing that it's over, for now.

Peter Cat

Target down.

Jinx Bubastis

Mine, too.

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

The 2018 Ford Focus has made a U-Turn on the empty W 4th St, and has stopped near Peter Cat and Jinx Bubastis. Camillo Skragg and Penny Skragg get out of the car. Peter Cat looks over at the humans.

Camillo Skragg (to Penny Skragg)

Are you shaking?

I'm shaking.

Penny Skragg

That means we're not dead.

Peter Cat

Let's get the corpses together.

Panel 3 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

A close view of Peter Cat, who has a disturbingly neutral facial expression.

Peter Cat

I have enough regard for my former colleagues to not want to see them on a dissection table.
We'll burn the bodies.

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg looks horrified.

Penny Skragg

Dude...

I don't know how to feel about that.

Panel 5 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg gestures towards the front of the courthouse.

Penny Skragg

Also, I kinda domed the Eye.

I think there're bits of her head all over the place.

Panel 6 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

A close view of Peter Cat. He looks focussed, concentrating on the moment, getting an unpleasant job done.

Peter Cat

I'll have to do clean-up anyway.

Broken glass, bullets, cartridge casings.

Let's get to work.

Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

The Crisis Center; we finally see the people who were talking into boxes in the last few pages. Jake Lyon sits next to The Magister at the conference table.

Jake Lyon

Let's pretend I'm OK with the Vlad Tepes logic of putting Honor Guard's heads on stakes...
...how are we going to explain it to the American people?

The Magister

Poochie.

Jake Lyon

What!?

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jake Lyon looks at The Magister with obvious disbelief. The Magister keeps talking.

The Magister*

"They died on the way back to their home planet."

Jake Lyon

"The Simpsons"? Really?

The Magister*

Look at it from a historic perspective.
The primary sources are limited. All we need to do add enough deliberate inconsistencies to keep the scholars and prodromal schizophrenics busy.
You act like truth matters.

Panel 3 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jake Lyon looks at The Magister with open astonishment. The Magister looks at the doorway and smiles at what he sees.

Jake Lyon

It doesn't?

The Magister*

You're very clever, you must have noticed by now.
I see the hunters have returned.

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Peter Cat, Jinx Bubastis, Camillo Skragg, and Penny Skragg enter the Crisis Center. They look a little tired.

Peter Cat

We stopped by the police morgue before coming here.
Jinx can tell you more.

Jinx Bubastis

The police guarding Honor Guard's shuttle were killed by a particularly invasive mind probe.
That's more Demonslayer than Victor Bravo.

Panel 5 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jake Lyon seems relieved to talk about relatively real things.

Jake Lyon

RVS Tulsa ATC said they lost track of the shuttle after a couple of sweeps.
Is it stealth?

Panel 6 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis looks thoughtful.

Jinx Bubastis

If it's using shields, it's the opposite of stealth.
This is another piece of evidence that Demonlayer has taken the shuttle.
I think we can eliminate a possible orbital flight.
We need to investigate the landing site.

Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

The bottom of the Corporate escape pod. Victor Bravo has survived a transcontinental flight on the outside of the pod, and is still clinging to the shuttle – barely.

Box (Jake Lyon, not visible)

What about Victor Bravo?

He's still out there, right?

Panel 1a (small square inset):

Victor Bravo's hand slips – he has lost his grip.

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo falls. He's not unconscious, but he's not able to react right now.

Box (Jinx Bubastis, not visible)

If we are very lucky Demonslayer killed him.

I doubt it, though. She'd have made a spectacle of it.

Panel 3 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo lands in a lake. It's Center Lake, in the Whittier Narrows Recreation area. The impact should be lethal, and probably would be if he weren't an alien super-soldier.

Box (Peter Cat, not visible)

Jinx is right.

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Unfortunately, the fall and impact were not lethal. Victor Bravo crawls onto the shore.

Box (Peter Cat, not visible)

Victor Bravo is still a threat.

Panel 5 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

The Corporate escape pod keeps flying over Montebello, and approaches downtown Los Angeles.

Killotron (from inside pod)

A landscape gnarled with alien breath,

We're cloaked in silence, veiled from their gaze.

Mistress' hand weaves the void's dark thread–

The primitives' radio beams – blind to our threat.

Demonslayer (from inside pod)

"Alien breath?"

Really, Killotron?

This obscene sprawl looks like a tumor to me.

Near sundown, a view from slightly above the parking lot of the Tulsa Expo Center, where the Corporate escape pod landed. It's been marked off with crime scene tape. Jinx Bubastis approaches the middle of the side. Peter Cat, Camillo Skragg, and Penny Skragg follow close behind.

A little later, at the landing site...

Jinx Bubastis

The problem with psychometry is that the impressions become unstuck in time.

Of course Victor Bravo was here.

He flew the shuttle when it landed.

I couldn't tell you if he came back, it all blends together.

Panel 2 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis kneels and closes her eyes, gesturing with one hand to feel the impressions.

Jinx Bubastis

I can feel Bearcat...

...and I can feel Bearcat seeing Killotron...

...where is she?

Panel 3 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis reacts as if she got an electric shock.

Jinx Bubastis (shouting in pain)

AH--!!

Peter Cat (off-panel)

Jinx!?

Panel 4 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis pulls back her hand. Peter Cat stands behind her, concerned.

Jinx Bubastis

A ward.

A hex on this place.

Panel 5 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis looks concerned. Peter Cat turns to think a little.

Jinx Bubastis

Now I know she was here—

—but she knows we're on this planet!

Panel 6 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Peter Cat approaches Jinx Bubastis and smiles a little.

Peter Cat

Excellent.

That means she knows we have the only way off this rock.

That means leverage.

Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Nighttime on Radio Hill in Elysium Park, a location near Downtown Los Angeles. The area is largely inhabited by the homeless. Bearcat and Killotron have been sent to clear an encampment near where Demonlayer has set up her base; she is planning on using the antenna here in the near future. A close-up of a woman's face, illuminated by a nearby fire. The last few years of her life has not been kind to her. Half of her face is splattered with blood. She wants to scream, but cannot.

Near Downtown L.A. is an abandoned place called Radio Hill.

Bearcat (off-panel)

The female!

There!

Box (narration, lower right)

The desperate use it as a place of refuge.

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Killotron has one of his arm-mounted laser cannon extended, and fires at a target off-panel. Bearcat takes a child-like joy at Killotron's destruction of the target. The camp has been wrecked; tents burn.

SF/X (near Killotron's laser cannon)

FWEEEE!

SF/X (off-panel, from the target of Killotron's laser cannon)

SPLORT!!

Bearcat

Hah!

Well done, Killotron!

The area is secured!

Panel 3 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Bearcat looks thoughtful as he speaks to Killotron. Killotron listens closely.

Bearcat

It is fortunate that Mistress has found a way home.

It is unfortunate that this makes me ask a disturbing question.

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Bearcat continues talking to Killotron.

Bearcat

Was she prepared to sacrifice us both?

Panel 5 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

Bearcat and Killotron turn to look at the lights of Downtown Los Angeles, illuminated from behind by small fires. Bearcat ponders.

Killotron

My beam carved art from ash and bone,
A symphony of smoke and flame.
Comrade's eyes, once wild, now gleam—
A mind forged in her silent name.
You whisper doubt, a blade unsharpened:
“Does she carve our fate into the void?”
Yet in her gaze, a star's slow burn—
A reckoning born where shadows roil.

Bearcat

It is good to see her functioning again.
I believe this is going to work.

Page 10

Panel 1 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis (to Camillo Skragg)

Here, take this.

Camillo Skragg

What is it?

Jinx Bubastis (to Camillo Skragg)

It's a neurocomm – a neural interface attached to a tiny interocitor.

There's software that lets you stream sensory inputs, too.

Panel 2 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg looks at Camillo Skragg. Camillo Skragg looks through a semi-transparent image of what Penny Skragg sees. Jinx Bubastis looks at this with mild amusement.

Camillo Skragg

Whoa.

Penny Skragg

See? This is what I see.

Camillo Skragg

Neat!

Jinx Bubastis

Since we're doing counter-insurgency now, we're going to need good coordination and mobility.

These should help a lot, especially if we have to split up.

Panel 3 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

The DHS Liaison is talking on her smartphone. She gestures towards Peter Cat, Jinx Bubastis, Camillo Skragg, and Penny Skragg, getting their attention.

DHS Liaison (into smartphone)

So, it's a confirmed sighting?

Let me put you on speakerphone.

Panel 4 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

The DHS Liaison puts her smartphone on the conference table. Jinx Bubastis' eyes glow as she telepathically makes contact with the caller.

Smartphone (Dispatch officer)

Hello! This is the East LA Sheriff's Department. As I was saying, we have reports of a seven-foot cat-man in Whittier and Montebello. eep!

Jinx Bubastis (word of power)

Pardon me, I need to see through your eyes.

We'll be right there.

Panel 5 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

An office in the East LA Sheriff's Department. Peter Cat, Jinx Bubastis, Camillo Skragg, and Penny Skragg appear in a shower of sparks. The Dispatch officer is shocked by their sudden appearance; she is looking directly at the space where they appear.

Dispatch officer

Yikes!

Jinx Bubastis

So, you were saying?

Panel 6 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Dispatch officer

Right... Our best guess is that he'll be heading to Whittier Boulevard.

Radio operator

Hey! KJC625 just went down.
That's the LAPD's station.

Page 11

Panel 1 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Demonlayer appears on every screen; her voice emerges from every speaker.

Demonlayer (TV)

Ape creatures! Please attend carefully.

You are in mortal danger.

I have hidden several powerful bombs in different locations.

Panel 2 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis makes a “shoo” gesture to Peter Cat. Peter Cat leaves behind a smoky streak as he flies through the ceiling. Demonlayer continues her address.

Demonlayer (TV)

If one is tampered with, all will explode.

If any attempt to approach my position on Radio Hill is made, all will explode.

Any attempt to intervene, and I will immediately trigger detonation.

Jinx Bubastis (to Peter Cat)

Get out before she detects you!

Peter Cat (speech balloon trailing flight path)

On it!

Panel 3 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Demonlayer keeps talking.

Demonlayer (TV)

Others of our kind are on your world!

One has a starship.

She will bring that ship to Radio Hill.

Radio operator

How is she transmitting—?

Jinx Bubastis (to Radio operator)

Sympathetic magic.

Panel 4 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Demonlayer ends her speech.

Demonlayer (TV)

One way or another, the bombs will explode.

Your city is forfeit.

You may panic now.

Panel 5 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Camillo Skragg turns around suddenly. The Radio operator talks to him, pointing at the exit.

Camillo Skragg

Wait a minute...

...where's Penny?

Radio operator

I think she went down to the motor pool.

Panel 6 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg speeds out of the motor pool on a police motorcycle. Camillo Skragg calls after her from an open window.

SF/X (Penny Skragg's motorcycle)

VROOM!

Camillo Skragg

Penny! Wait!

Page 12

Panel 1 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg takes a broad right turn onto Whittier Blvd on her “borrowed” police motorcycle.

Panel 2 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg stands on the saddle of the motorcycle as she bears down on a running Victor Bravo.

Panel 2a (small square inset)

Penny Skragg firmly grabs the left, front brake of the motorcycle, causing the front wheel to jam.

Panel 3 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg is launched into a high arc over Victor Bravo and turns as she somersaults; she will land facing him once he gets up. The police motorcycle also somersaults, in a lower arc that catches Victor Bravo in the back and slams him into the pavement.

Panel 4 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo recovers quickly and gets to his feet, seemingly uninjured. Penny Skragg lands in a ready stance.

Panel 5 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo lowers into a crouch to charge at Penny Skragg. Penny Skragg make a “bring it” gesture with one hand.

Victor Bravo

Is this some kind of joke?

Page 13

Note: All continuity issues are intentional. Penny's a reality warper, bullshit is her weapon. It should look at least superficially plausible.

Panel 1 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo lunges forwards, a comically large plastic (but very, very sharp) combat knife in his right hand. He is attempting to decapitate Penny Skragg with a single swing. Penny Skragg ducks down deep and performs a Bruce Lee-style leg sweep.

Panel 2 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg's right arm hooks around Victor Bravo's extended right arm, like she performed an improbably quick roll after knocking Victor Bravo's foot out from under him.

Panel 3 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg crouches, with the knife in her hand. In the background, Victor Bravo recovers very quickly, getting his feet back under him in a crouched stance, with his back to Penny Skragg.

Panel 4 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg slams the knife hilt-deep into Victor Bravo's grotesquely muscled left thigh.

Victor Bravo (shout of pain)

GRAGH!

Panel 5 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo looks down at the knife hilt embedded into the outside of his left thigh. In the background, Penny Skragg sprints towards the locked gate covering the front door of a vacant building.

Panel 6 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo returns the bloody blade into the scabbard on his right boot. His gaze is fixated on the still-closed gate, which rattles a little after Penny Skragg somehow entered the vacant building.

Page 14

Note: All continuity issues are intentional. Penny's a reality warper, bullshit is her weapon. It should look at least superficially plausible.

Panel 1 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo smashes through the front door of the vacant building, breaking the gate and door frame into pieces, tearing out bits of wall.

Panel 2 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Light streams into the darkened interior of the vacant building through the open back door. Victor Bravo charges forward towards it.

Panel 3 (1/3rd page width. 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo face-plants just outside the back door. Behind him is a crude set of stairs made of cinder blocks.

Panel 4 (1/3rd page width. 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo looks back at the staircase; it should be six blocks in a 3-2-1 configuration, but the bottom step is missing.

Panel 5 (1/3rd page width. 1/3rd page height):

The missing cinder block impacts the top of Victor Bravo's head, shattering.

Panel 6 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo flies up to the roof using his jetpack.

Panel 7 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo has landed on the roof. He reaches for his side-arm, and looks down to confirm that it's missing from its holster.

Page 15

Note: All continuity issues are intentional. Penny's a reality warper, bullshit is her weapon. It should look at least superficially plausible.

Panel 1 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg lifts Victor Bravo's oversized sidearm to aim it at Victor Bravo's solar plexus. Victor Bravo stands there, slack-jawed.

Panel 2 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

A laser blast strikes Victor Bravo's body armor; there is a small explosion of sparks.

SF/X ZZAP

Victor Bravo (grunt of pain) gnnh...

Panel 3 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Much like Panel 2. Penny Skragg has found the second trigger, and has fired a miniature explosive shell into Victor Bravo's solar plexus. There is a muffled explosion.

SF/X (muffled explosion) THOMP

Panel 4 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Victor Bravo falls to his knees. He has been disemboweled inside his body armor. Blood is already starting to pool around his knees.

Victor Bravo (dying)

It's... cold...

Panel 5 (Full page width. 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg looks on in horror as Victor Bravo falls face-first onto the roof of the vacant building. Victor Bravo bleeds out.

Victor Bravo (dying)

Whyzit...

...col-

Box (lower right, Penny Skragg, neurocomm)

"Victor Bravo's down."

Panel 1 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

A large monitor inside the Crisis Center shows news footage from a helicopter of the roof in East LA where Victor Bravo died. Penny Skragg is curled up into a ball and is barely visible. Victor Bravo's corpse lies prone in a large pool of blood. The Mayor of Tulsa stares at the monitor; he is feeling both triumph and horror. Jake Lyon is cradling his head. The Magister is sitting next to him, watching events unfold with a slight smile. Several other figures are clapping in the foreground.

Mayor of Tulsa (under his breath)

Got the fucker...

Jake Lyon (exhausted)

It's not over yet.

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jake Lyon turns to The Magister.

The Magister

No, it isn't.

But it's only a matter of time.

Jake Lyon

You're confident.

Panel 3 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jake Lyon tries to stare down The Magister, who does not respond.

Jake Lyon

I know journalists.

I can tell them the truth.

Then what would you do?

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

The Magister gets up from the table and smiles at Jake Lyon.

The Magister

I hope you weren't expecting some kind of theatrical threat.

Panel 5 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

The Magister's back as he heads for the door to the Crisis Center.

The Magister

We all do what we must.

Mid-morning. Peter Cat hovers above LA at the edge of space.

Peter Cat (neurocomm)

I seem to be far enough away that Demonlayer can't sense me.
But I'm close enough that I could neutralize the bombs.

Camillo Skragg holds Penny Skragg in the East LA Sheriff's Department.

Camillo Skragg (neurocomm)

Penny's back.
She seems to be OK.

The Radio operator talks to Jinx Bubastis, and offers her an inexpensive aircraft radio.

Radio operator

The airspace over LA is restricted – you'll need to talk to ATC.

Jinx Bubastis

Gotcha. Do you have a summary of the procedures?

Radio operator

Yeah, over here.

Peter Cat hovers above LA at the edge of space.

Peter Cat (neurocomm)

I haven't been able to locate the bombs yet.
The signal is weak, and there's a lot of noise.

Camillo Skragg thinks for a moment, and has an idea.

Camillo Skragg (neurocomm)

Wait a minute. The bombs use antimatter, right?
Even a tiny leak would produce gamma radiation!

Camillo Skragg talks on his smartphone.

Camillo Skragg

Hello? Professor?

Yes, it's me, Camillo.

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height)

Camillo Skragg sits down and keeps talking.

Camillo Skragg

I'd need a big favor from you – could you have the Fermi Gamma-ray Space Telescope image the LA Basin?

You can do it now?

Great!

Panel 3 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height)

Camillo Skragg seems palpably relieved. He hangs up.

Camillo Skragg

Thanks, you're a real life-saver.

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height)

Camillo Skragg downloads the image onto his smartphone.

Camillo Skragg (neurocomm)

Peter?

Are you seeing this?

Peter Cat looks through a translucent neurocomm projection of the image from the Fermi gamma-ray telescope.

Peter Cat (neurocomm)

Excellent.

Yes, this helps.

I can locate the bombs.

Page 19

Panel 1 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

The cockpit of the Black Sabbath. Jinx Bubastis operates an inexpensive aircraft radio (similar to a Garmin 115) that has been duct-taped to one of the consoles.

Jinx Bubastis

LAX Tower, Black Sabbath Niner Niner X-Ray, at two thousand seven hundred, request clearance en route to Radio Hill.

LAX ATC (from radio)

Black Sabbath Niner Niner X-Ray, maintain two thousand seven hundred,

Jinx Bubastis

Maintain two thousand seven hundred, wilco. Black Sabbath Niner Niner X-Ray.

Panel 2 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Peter Cat hangs on the edge of space above the Los Angeles Basin. He is concentrating intensely.

Peter Cat (neurocomm)

Good.

I have all ten bombs.

Isolating.

Panel 3 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis turns to the miniature gunnery station next to the cockpit. A view of the Radio Hill transmitter is on the screen. She has moved a targeting reticle to the building using a small joystick.

Peter Cat (neurocomm)

Isolated.

Panel 4 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis looks at the covered arming switch for the Black Sabbath's nose-mounted deck gun. It remains unarmed.

Panel 5 (Full page width. 1/3rd page height):

The Black Sabbath lands near the entrance to the transmitter building. Bearcat and Killotron are standing watch outside the front door.

Page 20

Panel 1 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Bearcat opens the door to let Jinx Bubastis in. Killotron has a laser cannon extended, and is closely following Jinx Bubastis' movements.

Panel 2 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Demonlayer turns to face Jinx Bubastis. She is holding a detonator.

Demonlayer

So, you came.

You know, I could use a new Number Six—

Jinx Bubastis (interrupting Demonlayer)

No.

Panel 3 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Demonlayer turns around to face Jinx Bubastis, with the floating sphere behind her.

Demonlayer

You brought your vessel?

Jinx Bubastis

Yes.

Come and take it.

Panel 4 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Demonlayer gives Jinx Bubastis a hard look. Jinx Bubastis does not react.

Panel 5 (Full page width. 1/3rd page height):

Demonlayer waves one hand and gives an order. Bearcat and Killotron close in on Jinx Bubastis.

Demonlayer

Kill her.

Page 21

Panel 1 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis has telepathically reached deep into Bearcat's mind; her words are Words of Power.

Jinx Bubastis (Words of Power)

Your mind was never your own.
You were always a pet.
Your life was a lie.

Panel 2 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Bearcat reels, his face distorted with despair. Jinx Bubastis jumps forwards and removes Killotron's head with an uppercut.

Panel 3 (Full page width. 1/3rd page height):

Killotron staggers back, trying to aim his laser cannon blind. Bearcat puts a pistol to his own head.

Killotron

No light through shattered lenses—
Yet my circuits hum with unyielding fire.
Your fist a storm, your breath a blade,
I'll carve your name in static—

Panel 4 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis shatters the crystal on Killotron's chest.

SF/X (from behind Jinx Bubastis, Bearcat shoots himself in the head off-panel)

BLAM!

Panel 5 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

A ghostly wisp escapes from Killotron's inert body. Jinx Bubastis speaks Words of Power with a sad look.

Jinx Bubastis (Words of Power)

Be free now.

Page 22

Panel 1 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis snatches the detonator from Demonlayer's hand. Demonlayer is having difficulty processing what is happening.

Jinx Bubastis

No speech.
No wizards' duel.

Panel 2 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis depresses the plunger of the detonator while flipping off Demonlayer. Demonlayer is illuminated from behind by a light like a flashbulb, and not the detonation she was expecting.

Jinx Bubastis

No suicide bomb.

Panel 3 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis holds Demonlayer by the neck. She seems to be consuming a glowing smoky mass coming from Demonlayer' head. Jinx Bubastis eats Demonlayer's soul.

Panel 4 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Another realm. At the shores of the Lake of Fire, Demonlayer screams as Jinx Bubastis pins her arms behind her back and prepares to give her a shove.

Panel 5 (Full page width. 1/3rd page height):

A view of the Lake of Fire. Jinx Bubastis has just pushed Demonlayer over the edge. You can get a good reference for how this should look from a Jack Chick tract.

Page 23

Panel 1 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Early afternoon. Peter Cat touches down next to the landed Black Sabbath.

Later...

Peter Cat

Jinx?
Are you OK?

Panel 2 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Peter Cat walks into the building, and is startled at the sight of Bearcat's body on the floor. In the foreground, Jinx Bubastis sits in the Hunters' Repose position and tries to clear her mind.

Peter Cat

Penny's with Camillo, and doing all right.
I see—
—oh. Oh, crap.

Jinx Bubastis

I know this is going to sound like an excuse,
but I didn't force him to pull the trigger.

Panel 3 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis has walked up to Peter Cat, who is now holding her.

Jinx Bubastis

I pushed a cruel idea into his mind, and something gave way.
Bearcat was a smart guy.
He had years of fears and doubts and nobody to talk to.

Peter Cat

He probably knew one of the bombs was here.

Panel 4 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

A close view of Peter Cat and Jinx Bubastis.

Peter Cat

I guess no one is innocent.

Panel 5 (Full page width. 1/3rd page height):

A view a bit later, in front of the landed Black Sabbath. Peter Cat and Jinx Bubastis watch a funeral pyre in silence, huddled together.

Page 24

Panel 1 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Nighttime. An exterior view of a nice apartment in Georgetown, Washington, DC. Though the window, a telephone can be heard ringing. It's a smartphone, lying on the kitchen table.

That evening, in Washington, DC...

Panel 2 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

A woman – Image, of the Ready Men – observes the telephone continuing to ring. She is unscrewing a silencer from the end of a Colt 1911 style .45 pistol. She looks down at the ground.

Panel 3 (Full page width. 1/3rd page height):

Jake Lyon lies dead on the floor of his kitchen. Image looks at him evenly, and sends a message through the World of Ash.

Image (Words of Power)

Teacher.
The work is done.

Voice (Words of Power via the World of Ash)

Then go.
We will handle the rest.

Panel 4 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Image disappears, leaving only a whiff of ectoplasm.

Panel 5 (Half page width. 1/3rd page height):

Nighttime, in the kitchen of Jake Lyon's Georgetown apartment, in the dark.
