Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Nighttime exterior shot of the Skraggs' house – a compact, two-story Victorian house with a gabled roof and a large attic. An upper floor room is illuminated by dim light which is visible through the window.

Penny Skragg (from inside room)

What the hell!?

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg sits in front of a large flat screen monitor, keyboard, and mouse. She clicks on a link. The room is dark, but the light from the monitor illuminate Penny Skragg's face. She is dressed for bed, and has covered up with a sheer bathrobe.

Penny Skragg

Haven't heard from him in years...

Panel 3 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

A view of Penny's screen. She is watching a video that has been recorded in portrait format. Next to the video player is a partially visible chat window. The video shows an attractive young man in casual clothes, Dylan Whateley, who is filming himself in a well-lit interior.

Dylan Whateley

Hey guys! It's me, Dylan!

Chat window (partially visible)

Panel 4 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

A view like Panel 3. Dylan Whateley holds his phone camera at arm's length, filming himself and the interior of the house he's in. The room he is in appears to be a fairly standard kitchen. He is standing in front of a wooden interior door that looks like it would open to a closet, or perhaps a staircase to a basement.

Dylan Whateley

So, check this out.

Looks normal, right?

Panel 5 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

A view like Panel 3. Dylan Whateley opens the door. On the video stream, the door opens to what appears to be a wall of digital encoding errors, with a side order of the old Doom engine's "Hall of Mirrors" effect.

Dylan Whateley

I don't know what this looks like—
—but it's a solid wall of nothing.

Chat window (partially visible)

CherylLignam: Eww lame Backrooms slop...

Panel 6 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height)

Penny Skragg is illuminated by her screen in her dark room. She looks worried.

Dylan Whateley (from monitor speakers)

So let's go outside.

It's all messed up there, too.

Jinx Bubastis approaches the doorway leading to the room Penny Skragg is in. Penny Skragg gestures for her to come in and watch the stream with her. Jinx Bubastis is wearing something like a house kimono, and her mane is messy.

Dylan Whateley (from monitor speakers)

It's like the neighborhood I grew up in, but the streets don't go anywhere.

Penny Skragg

Hey, Jinx!

Have a look at this.

Jinx Bubastis

Hmm?

Panel 1 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

A view of Penny's screen, like Panels 3-5 of Page 1. Dylan Whateley is outside at night, standing in front of the entrance to a supermarket.

Dylan Whateley

So far, these doors are always unlocked.

CherylLignam: What a waste of tokens...

A view like Panels 3-5 of Page 1. Dylan Whateley looks at a display of boxes of chocolate chip cookies in a brown cardboard box. (Similar to but simpler than this → <https://thefreihofers.com/wp-content/uploads/2026/01/freihofers-bread-22.jpg>)

Dylan Whateley

Hey, they still sell these?

I haven't seen them since I was a kid!

Panel 4 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis stands behind Penny Skragg, and is looking at the screen carefully. She is propping herself up with her left arm. Penny Skragg types something into the keyboard.

Jinx Bubastis

How do you know this guy?

Penny Skragg

I used to buy mids off him.

Jinx Bubastis

Does the chat work?

Penny Skragg

I'll try writing to him.

Panel 5 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

A view like Panels 3-5 of Page 1. Dylan Whateley looks at his phone with obvious surprise.

Dylan Whateley

Whoa!

Hey, cool! Shout-out to Penny in the chat.

Panel 6 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

A view like Panels 3-5 of Page 1. Dylan Whateley talks directly into the camera of his phone. He looks worried.

Dylan Whateley

So, she's asking how I'm doing...

Panel 7 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

A view like Panels 3-5 of Page 1. Dylan Whateley continues talking into the camera in close-up. His expression transitions from worried to lightly scared.

Dylan Whateley

...I don't know what to say.

I feel... lost.

Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg

Dylan just stopped streaming.
I think that freaked him out a little.

Jinx Bubastis

Does he have any other videos online?

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

A view from the side. Peter Cat and Camillo Skragg are standing unobtrusively behind Jinx Bubastis and Penny Skragg are the focus and are still concentrating on the screen. Camillo Skragg is wearing comfy flannel pajamas, Peter Cat is in a black bathrobe.

Penny Skragg

He had some urban exploration videos up, but they're years old.
Where do you think he is?

Panel 3 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height, no border):

A diagram, loosely based on the central column of the Tree of Life (reference → <https://i.ebayimg.com/images/g/I7UAAOSw6Spe6gw/l1200.jpg>). “Kether” is a brilliant light shining through a curtain, Tephareth is a raging inferno labelled “Lake of Fire”, Yesod is a sphere of ash labelled “World of Ash”, Malkuth is a portal into the everyday world. The focus is fairly clearly on Yesod.

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis gestures subtly towards the diagram in Panel 3 as she tries to explain what she meant.

Jinx Bubastis

Beneath the Lake of Fire is a World of Ash.
After contradictions burn away, shared memories, background details, and liminal spaces are left behind.

Panel 5 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis is standing up. Penny Skragg swivels over to look at her. Peter Cat and Camillo Skragg stand on the other side.

Jinx Bubastis

It forms the borderlands between the living world and the realm of the dead.

Panel 6 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg looks at Jinx Bubastis. Jinx Bubastis closes her eyes and rubs the side of her head.

Penny Skragg

So, he's dead?

Jinx Bubastis

Dead and unaware of it.
Yes.

Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Mid shot of Camillo Skragg and Jinx Bubastis. Camillo Skragg has a thoughtful expression. Jinx Bubastis looks at him and smiles a little.

Camillo Skragg

That's an extraordinary claim, Jinx.

Jinx Bubastis

True.

But provable with ordinary evidence.

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Camillo Skragg sits down at the computer. Penny Skragg takes the place behind and to the left of the chair where Jinx Bubastis was. Jinx Bubastis and Peter Cat watch just off to the left, and may not be visible on panel.

Camillo Skragg

Didn't Dylan live in Kingston?

Let me call the police department.

Panel 3 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

From left to right – the computer, Camillo Skragg, Jinx Bubastis close behind, and Peter Cat and Penny Skragg on the right. Penny Skragg whispers to Peter Cat. Camillo Skragg used software like Zoom or Microsoft Teams to place a call to the Kingston PD, and the Detective on the other end has accepted a video call.

Detective (over monitor speakers)

Ah! Mr. Skragg –

– to what do we owe the honor?

Camillo Skragg

The honor?

Detective (over monitor speakers)

We got a bulletin about you guys, you're Federal law enforcement.

Camillo Skragg

Oh!

It's nothing serious, just a wellness check.

Penny Skragg (whispering)

We're Feds?

Peter Cat

Shh.

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Camillo Skragg smiles and does his best to be friendly.

Camillo Skragg

One "Dylan Whateley" – could you have someone check up on him?

Detective (over monitor speakers)

Dylan Whateley?

Let me look.

Panel 5 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

A view of the screen of the computer, showing the video call with the Kingston PD. The Detective looks a little concerned.

Detective (over monitor speakers)

Oh, man. You'll want to contact the Ulster County Sheriff.

There's a missing persons' investigation running for years now.

Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Exterior, early evening. Peter Cat, Jinx Bubastis, Camillo Skragg, and Penny Skragg are in the yard in front of an abandoned mansion (not visible on-panel yet). They are dressed in their normal daytime clothes, or the most “streetwear” register of their costumes, as seen in the “Character descriptions” reference. Peter Cat stands in the middle, squinting a little as he scans the surroundings. Jinx Bubastis stands next to him, arms crossed. Camillo Skragg is sitting on a picnic blanket on the grass and operating a laptop and a software-defined radio rig. Penny Skragg crouches behind him, looking into her smartphone.

The next day...

Peter Cat

So, this is the place?

Penny Skragg

Yeah.

His last urban exploration videos were set here.

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

A view of the group from the rear. They are all facing a decaying mansion, a “Queen Anne” style sprawl with several distinct wings, and is obviously decaying, with broken windows and graffiti.

Penny Skragg

This abandoned mansion belonged to an eccentric billionaire.

Dylan’s stream should be starting shortly.

Panel 3 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis bends over behind Penny Skragg and Camillo Skragg as he gets his radio rig ready.

Camillo Skragg

So, how does a ghost have internet?

Jinx Bubastis

The World of Ash can interact with reality.

Camillo Skragg

I guess a radio signal isn’t that much different from a cold spot or tossing around small objects in terms of energy.

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Penny Skragg looks down at her phone. Camillo Skragg is surprised by what his laptop’s SDR program is showing him.

Penny Skragg

His stream is starting...

Camillo Skragg

...and there’s the signal.

Astonishing.

Panel 5 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Jinx Bubastis stands next to Peter Cat.

Peter Cat

There's a cavern beneath the mansion's basement.
I can feel the signal from down there.

Jinx Bubastis

Then I will enter the World of Ash and try to find Dylan.

Panel 6 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Close-up on Jinx Bubastis, who looks mildly amused.

Jinx Bubastis

The stream will be his subjective perception of events.
I imagine I'll have to put the "psycho" in "psychopomp".

Panel 1 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Peter Cat passes through the limestone ceiling of the cavern beneath the mansion. His body seems to be reconstituting itself from a smoky form – compare Issue 1, Page 13, Panel 3. In one hand, he holds a ball of light, the only source of illumination in the cave. In the background, a metal staircase leads down to the floor of the cave. The cave itself is visibly damp, stalactites hang from the ceiling, and a large section away from the entrance is flooded.

Box (narration, Peter Cat)

As I suspected, the previous owner had excavated a cavern beneath his mansion.

Box (narration, Sheriff)

Like a panic room, or a bomb shelter?

Box (narration, Peter Cat)

Something like that.

Construction seems to have stalled.

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Peter Cat aims his hand, a little like a flashlight, into the darkness of the cavern. Stalactites hang from the ceiling. There is a large pool of murky water filling much of the cavern.

Box (narration, Peter Cat)

The cavern was carved into carbonate rock–

–I believe you call it limestone.

Groundwater seeped up through the porous rock.

Panel 3 (Full page width, 1/3rd page height):

In the foreground, the skeletal remains of Dylan Whateley lie on the floor of the cavern, illuminated by a beam from a ball of light hovering just behind Peter Cat's right shoulder. Shreds of his clothing remain. Peter Cat is only visible in silhouette in the background.

Box (narration, Sheriff)

And that's where you found the corpse?

Box (narration, Peter Cat)

Precisely.

I haven't been able to identify the deceased, of course.

Box (narration, Sheriff)

That's our job, but I'm pretty sure that's Dylan.

What happened to him?

Panel 4 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Peter Cat carries the corpse of Dylan Whateley in his arms, and looks back at the murky water inside the cave.

Box (narration, Peter Cat)

The pool of water was saturated with carbon dioxide.

The smallest disruption could cause outgassing, filling the cave with "dead air."

The low partial pressure of oxygen swiftly led to unconsciousness.

Panel 5 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

Peter Cat flies through the ceiling of the cavern, leaving a smoky trail, as the ball of light fades.

Box (narration, Sheriff)

Asphyxiation.

Box (narration, Peter Cat)

He never had a chance.

Page 7

All panels on this page use the “screen view” conventions from earlier.

Panel 1 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

A close-up of Dylan Whateley’s eye – a reference to a similar scene towards the end of “The Blair Witch Project.”

Dylan Whateley

that thing won’t get me...

Panel 3 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

The stream goes dark, as if Dylan Whateley’s phone has fallen with its camera pointing at the ground.

Panel 4 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

The Entity (growls)

Panel 5 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

The Entity walks away from the propped-up phone towards Dylan Whateley, who tries unsuccessfully to stand up or crawl away on the basalt surface at the edge of The Lake of Fire.

Dylan Whateley

Oh God!
Oh God!
Please help!

The Entity (growls)

Panel 6 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

The Entity has grabbed Dylan Whateley by his collar in one hand, by his belt in the other. She is winding up to throw him high into the air.

Dylan Whateley (screaming)

No!

No!

PLEASE!

Panel 7 (1/3rd page width, 1/3rd page height):

Dylan Whateley flies in a parabolic arc high above the Lake of Fire, head down, butt up.

Panel 2 (Half page width, 1/3rd page height):

The Sheriff turns to talk quietly to Peter Cat. Peter Cat nods in acknowledgement of what the Sheriff tells him.

Sheriff
